

Timers

Description

Timer program includes electronic timers with both multi-function and multi-supply voltage. The selection guide below may help to select a timer to fit the actual application.

Multi-function timers combine a range of timing functions that are easily selected on the front of the timer. The time range is also selectable on the front and the timer will work at any voltage from 10.5-265V AC or DC.