

Temperature Sensor for Liquids

Description

A wide range of Temperature sensors are available for industrial temperature measurement and chemical applications. Special versions of PFA coated probe with Teflon inserted steel flange are applicable for chemical and petro chemical applications. A wide range of measurement from -50oC to +600oC is possible. Intrinsically safe Ex type sensors with flame proof enclosure can be used for Hazardous applications.