

Clarifiers

Description

Clarification is the process of separating solids from the liquid. The principle is to create flocs from the suspended material in the wastewater by using chemicals and let these flocs settle by gravity in a calculated retention time. The selection of a tank configuration and collector mechanism as scraper type and/or suction type depends upon the characteristics of solids suspension of process liquid. Dutco supplies complete range settlement tank scrapers in rotating and travelling types.

Product Group

- ✓ Peripheral Driven Scraper
- ✓ Travelling Scraper
- ✓ Central Driven Scraper