

Hydrophones

Description

Using our Hydrophone sensors leaks on trunk mains as well as on non-metallic pipes can be correlated very accurately. The system consists of two highly sensitive hydrophone sensors, two data loggers and advanced evaluating software. Correlation between these two sensors helps us to locate the leak precisely. Hydrophones have an internal Li-ion battery with a life time of five years. A limited space is enough for installing these Hydrophones and data loggers.