

Non Rising Stem – Brass

Description

Brass Gate Valves are used in commercial and residential general service applications. They feature brass body construction with female threaded connections, brass non-rising stem and gland, PTFE packing, brass threaded bonnet, solid wedge disc, and cast iron, cross-handle handwheel.

Features

- Screwed BSP Taper
- Full Bore
- Kite Marked

Technical Data

Max Pressure	25 Bar
Working Temperature	-10°C to +186°C