

Roof Hatches

Description

Our roof hatches are supplied in various forms such as access door, floor door, roof hatch and smoke vent, and makes quick and easy access to hidden services. roof hatches give easy access to mechanical, electrical and plumbing fixtures behind a wall, ceiling, roof, and under the floor. These roof hatches can be adopted in any type of buildings such as commercial, residential, educational or industrial.

We offer premium quality, reliable, efficient and cost effective features which are ideal for use in industrial and commercial sectors. Our access doors are ready to meet every specification that you need and gives service access in all types of walls and ceilings. The floor, vault and sidewalk doors provide safe and reliable access below ground and between building floors. Our roof hatches provide safe and convenient access to commercial building roof areas using interior ladders and stairs. Roof top smoke vents automatically open to release heat, smoke, and noxious fumes in the event of a fire emergency.

Our roof hatches are affordable and meets building codes, fire & life safety requirements. We believe we build our services around our customer's specified needs. With vast industry and know-how expertise, we are engaged in offering to our patrons an inclusive collection of roof hatches. Keeping in mind the diversified and variegated requirements & needs of our patron, we offer these products in several provisions so as to meet their diversified necessities. Additionally, the complete collection is tested and re-tested on certain quality traits before final dispatch.

Variants

- Personnel
- Thermally Broken
- Day Lighting
- Security
- Equipment
- Roof Hatch Fall Protection